Makes a Grant to Cincinnati Hebrew Day School

CINCINNATI, OH, August 10, 2012 - Saul Schottenstein Foundation B has made a grant to Cincinnati Hebrew Day School. The contribution was made in recognition of the good works of the school through its emphasis on strong moral character and acceptance of all people. The grant was designated for equipment and toys for children participating in the new Daycare program.

Jeffrey P. Harris, Saul Schottenstein's nephew and a trustee of Saul Schottenstein Foundation B, believes the contribution furthers the foundation's mission to partner with organizations that foster human acceptance, connection, and organic oneness of life, and helping people experience their common humanity.

The Saul Schottenstein Foundation B was established in 2009 by the Estate of Saul S. Schottenstein. Visit the Saul Schottenstein Foundation B Web site at www.saulschottensteinfoundationb.org.
