CINCINNATI, Nov. 8, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Saul Schottenstein Foundation B, Jonathan L. Harris Memorial Philanthropic Fund, and Susan and Jeffrey P. Harris Family Foundation have made a grant to The Jewish Federation of Cincinnati in support of the Reelabilities Film Festival: Traveling Program ("Reelabilities"), to be hosted by the Mayerson Jewish Community Center in Cincinnati, Ohio, in September 2011. The Reelabilities Film Festival will be in connection with a fundraising event with the proceeds to be used to assist the Mayerson Jewish Community Center in becoming accessible to all people with disabilities.

The Reelabilities Film Festival, sponsored by The Jewish Community Center in Manhattan, promotes awareness and appreciation of the lives, stories and artistic expressions of people with differing abilities. The travelling program, designed to increase awareness through greater outreach, helps raise consciousness and educate people to transform their ideas about what it means to have a disability, to promote awareness, in order to foster a more caring, sensitive and inclusive community. Jeffrey P. Harris, Saul Schottenstein's nephew and a trustee of all of the foundations, believes the contribution furthers the foundations' mission to partner with organizations that foster human acceptance, organic oneness of life, and helping people experience their common humanity.
